PLAN FOR ALLOCATION OF JUDICIAL RESOURCES
(CASELOAD ALLOCATION PLAN)

INTRODUCTION:

In response to the directive issued July 16, 1999 by the Indiana Supreme Court in its Order for Development of Local Caseload Plans, Local Rule 1999-1, the Johnson County Plan for Allocation of Judicial Resources was implemented. The caseload allocation created in Local Rule 1999-1 has, in large part, successfully equalized the caseloads of the Johnson Circuit and Superior Courts.

In response to the increase in caseload, Local Rule 2004-2, now LR41-AR01-057 to LR41 - AR01-066, was implemented in 2004 to maximize judicial resources through reorganizing and specializing of the caseloads for each court. As the caseload of the Johnson Circuit and Superior Courts continues to increase, concomitant stresses have been placed on court calendars, judicial officers, and court staff.

The 2009 Weighted Caseload Measures produced published by the Indiana Supreme Court Division of State Court Administration reveal that the variance among the Johnson Circuit and Superior Courts is at least 0.54. Thus, for the first time since caseload equalization was required in 1999, the 2009 data reveals that, for the first time since caseload equalization was mandated, the Johnson County Circuit and Superior Courts are not in compliance. Although Johnson County is statistically eligible for at least four (4) additional courts, financial and political realities make it unlikely that additional courts of record will be added in Johnson County for several years. Therefore, slight modification of the caseload allocation plan is necessary.

LR41 - AR01 - 057: Criminal Cases.

Criminal case allocation among the courts of record will operate as specified in the Rules for Filing and Reassignment of Criminal Cases, LR41 - CR2.2 - 086.

LR41 - AR01 - 059: Family Court Cases.

A MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT HAS BEEN FILED AND,
IF UNOPPOSED, THIS MOTION MAY RESULT IN JUDGMENT BEING ENTERED AGAINST YOU WITHOUT A HEARING OR TRIAL.

The Courts of Johnson County, Indiana require that this notice be sent to you about the motion for summary judgment that was filed by the opposing party. This notice does not contain legal advice, but does provide important information about your legal options. Please read it carefully.

The opposing party has filed a motion for summary judgment pursuant to Indiana Trial Rule 56(C). The motion alleges that the facts are not in dispute and the Court can rule as a matter of law. The motion asks the Court to enter judgment in favor of the opposing party without a trial.

As you are not represented by counsel, you are hereby advised of your obligation to respond to the summary judgment motion. Your previous answer, denial or even counter-claim in response to the original complaint is not sufficient to defend a motion for summary judgment. Unless you submit your own affidavits (or other documentary evidence) or a response that specifically identifies information within the existing court records that contradict the factual assertions of the evidence designated in the motion for summary judgment and supporting materials, any factual assertions in our motion and supporting documentation will be accepted by the Court as true. In essence, your failure to respond to the pending motion for summary judgment would be equivalent to failing to present any evidence in your favor at a trial.

If you wish to file a response to the motion, the Court must receive your response within thirty-three (33) days after your opponent's motion was mailed to you. Failure to meet this time frame will result in the Court being unable to consider your response or any attachments thereto.

Either party may request a court hearing on the summary judgment motion. A written request for a hearing must be received by the Court no later than ten (10) days after the response was filed or is due. The hearing will not be a trial, and neither party will be able to present evidence at the hearing. However, either party may make legal argument and refer to the evidence designated with the summary judgment motion or with any response. If no request for a hearing is filed with the Court, the Court may decide the motion without a hearing based on the affidavits and documents filed by the parties.

Any response or request for hearing must be served (or mailed) on the attorney for the opposing party. A response (or other pleading) filed with the Court must include a statement that you have complied with this requirement. Your statement may be in the following form: "I delivered a copy of this response to (Attorney Name) by United States Mail on this ____ day of _____, 20____."

As with any legal matter, you may wish to consult with and/or retain an attorney to represent you in this lawsuit and to assist you in responding to our motion for summary judgment.
